

Behavioral Initiative	Lead Staff	Target Audience	Goals
Marathon County School-Based Counseling Consortium	Lee Shipway, Peaceful Solutions Counseling  Jennifer Smith, Bridge Community Health Clinic	K-12th grade students in Marathon County schools	This consortium of mental health providers are providing onsite mental health therapy services in as many Marathon County school districts as possible.  The Consortium merged work with the Changemakers in Behavioral Health Grant project under direction of Hannah Schommer and Aaron Ruff at the Marathon County Health Department, to reduce depression in youth from 23% on the 2015 YRBS to 17% by 2024.
Diversion Pilot	Deanna Schuette & Amanda Gallagher, United Way of Marathon County  Becky Bogen, Social Services	Truant 6th-12th grade students in Wausau & DC Everest School Districts.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reduce number of students referred to truancy court.</li> <li>• Increase supportive services to students with early signs of truancy (prevent criminalization of youth).</li> <li>• Increase students' access to community-based services.</li> <li>• For students who are truant and referred for additional support:                             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– Improve school attendance.</li> <li>– Improve academic success.</li> <li>– Improve wellbeing.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Crisis Process Improvement Team	Laura Scudiere, North Central Health Care	Children, teens, and adults in crisis in Lincoln, Langlade, and Marathon Counties.	To improve the response to crisis services in Lincoln, Langlade, and Marathon Counties through a collaborative multi-disciplinary approach.
Evidence Based Decision Making Group	Lance Leonhard & Laura Yarie, Marathon County	Pre-trial criminal justice defendants.  Children, teens, and adults in crisis in Marathon County.  Marathon County residents with mental health and/or AODA treatment needs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•By 2021, reduce recidivism among pretrial individuals by 25%.</li> <li>•By 2021, reduce mental health crisis requiring detention by 25%.</li> </ul>
Children &amp; the Courts: Trauma-Informed Workgroup	Vicki Tylka, Social Services	Children and families who come into contact with the child welfare system.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provide ACEs trainings to Children &amp; Courts partners.</li> <li>• Evaluate and recommend trauma informed practices for court system to be inclusive of the whole family.</li> </ul>

Behavioral Initiative	Setting	Target
Marathon County School-Based Counseling Consortium	School-based services &amp; interventions	K-12th grade students in Marathon County schools
Status Offense Reform Work Group		Truant 6th-12th grade students in Wausau &amp; DC Everest School Districts.
Crisis Process Improvement Team	Crisis Services	Children, teens, and adults in crisis in Lincoln, Langlade, and Marathon Counties.
Evidence Based Decision Making Group	Criminal justice system (Law Enforcement &amp; Courts)	Pre-trial criminal justice defendants. Children, teens, and adults in crisis in Marathon County. Marathon County residents with mental health and/or AODA treatment needs.
Children &amp; the Courts: Trauma-Informed Workgroup		Children and families who come into contact with the child welfare system.